

VICTORY TOUR

Whilst we're still in the period of fervour surrounding the 75th anniversary of D-Day we hear that preparations are already under way to commemorate the 75th anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE) Day, an even more jubilant occasion at the time!

May 8th 1945 was the day peace finally settled over Europe after nearly six years of war and we cannot let this anniversary pass without reflecting on the enormous sacrifice, courage and determination of people from all walks of life who saw us through this dark period in our nation's history. The celebration, VE Day 75, will cover the weekend of 8th - 10th May 2020, and will be an international celebration of peace - a time to remember, reflect and pay tribute to the millions who played such a vital part in achieving it.

Nationally a series of organised events will be taking place including pipers playing the stirring anthem 'Battle's O'er' from the four highest peaks in the United Kingdom at 3.00pm on May 8th - the precise time that Winston Churchill officially announced the ending of hostilities in Europe. At the same time there will be a National Toast to the millions at home and abroad who gave so much to ensure we all enjoy the freedom we have today.

Locally, churches across the nation are asked to celebrate memorial services on the Sunday, sound the Last Post and ring out a Peal for Peace. The wider community is invited to arrange street and community parties, bringing everyone together, as they did 75 years ago, when the light began to shine again over Europe.

Look out for how Husbands Bosworth will be celebrating this tribute to the sacrifices made by so many. Go to www.veday75.org for more information.

Editor's Note: The government has helpfully moved the Early May Bank Holiday to Friday, May 8th to enable us to enjoy all the festivities!

For more information, please contact Helen Crane, Honorary Secretary on 07708 237464.

MEMORIAL ROSES

A new rose bed has recently been planted at the War Memorial in front of All Saints Church. The roses are red and commemorate each of the fourteen Bosworth men who failed to return to the village from World War I. These are the men who we remember every year on Remembrance Sunday, and whose names are on the War Memorial.

A plaque of dedication is now fitted to the large boulder at the rear of the flower bed, and facing the War Memorial. The boulder was found buried in the Vitters Spinney, immediately opposite the back drive of Bosworth Hall, and is therefore local to our village.

The cost of this memorial project was funded in part by a grant from Harborough District Council and in part by the Husbands Bosworth Branch of the Royal British Legion.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From the Tennis Club committee

Petty vandals have been at it again at the tennis courts - rubbish all over the court, seats up ended and the water tap left running!

From Nick Raven, Church Lane

Some of you may know that my wife Karen is a talented artist. She painted and drew, mainly for her own satisfaction, and over the years accumulated a considerable body of work. Tragically she has developed dementia and can no longer practise the art that she loved.

As circumstances have forced us to 'downsize', I believe that this collection should be put to a good use. We will have an Open Day at our home, 24 Church Lane on Saturday, July 6th from 10.00am to 2.30pm. All are welcome and we ask that visitors give us what they consider to be a fair price for any of her works. The unfortunate alternative is "the tip". All proceeds will go to a dementia charity. So please come, make an offer, however low, and help us benefit others going through, or yet to experience, the scourge of lost skills, memories and relationships that dementia brings.

THE PRICES (plus others) 3 PEAKS CHALLENGE

After a 7.30am start from Bosworth we arrived at our first destination, Ben Nevis in Scotland at about 5.00pm - in time for a quick shop, meal and an early night! Due to the looming weather conditions a really early start would be wise, so we were up and started our first climb at around 5.30am with glorious weather and spectacular scenery. The party of 10 completed the climb up and down within 5 hours. Ben Nevis ✓

The drive south was long and the weather had taken a turn for the worse as we arrived at Scafell Pike. IT WAS COLD, WINDY AND VERY WET, but still in good spirits we made the climb up and down in about 4 hours! Scafell Pike ✓

The journey to our final mountain, Snowdon, was completely in darkness and the weather by this time was getting even worse. We arrived at 2.30am and were greeted with a car park that resembled more a swimming pool than anything else. Storm Miguel was right overhead now with 50+mph gusts and torrential rain. We could feel the minibus rocking with the gusts so we decided that we couldn't go on in such dangerous conditions. Snowdon (tba)???

So, we're sorry to say that we didn't complete the challenge, but we are proud of what we did achieve. The mountains will still be there, and thankfully we are all still here! The Price family have not lost heart and we will be doing the challenge again in the next few weeks. Because of this we would like to extend the time in which to raise funds for our chosen charities, so if you would still like to donate it's not too late. Just think of it as two challenges for the price of one!!!!

We would like to thank everyone who so kindly sponsored us on our National 3 Peaks Challenge attempt.

POLICE FILE

Leicestershire Police have received a number of reports recently of residents who have taken phone calls from callers claiming to be police officers or bank officials investigating an internal bank fraud.

The usual gambit is that there has been fraudulent activity and the victim's bank account has been compromised. The victim is asked to hand over their bank cards and cheque book to assist the police with their investigation.

The victim may then be asked to dial a bogus number and key in their PIN number to receive confirmation of the validity of the scammer's call and will then be given a password or code to be used as authentication when a courier later calls to collect the supposedly de-activated bank card and cancelled cheque book.

YOU NEED TO KNOW:

- Your bank or the police will NEVER ask you for your PIN or banking password
- Your bank or the police will NEVER send someone to collect cash, PINs, cards or cheque books

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

A TASTE OF BOSWORTH

Smoked Haddock Soufflé

With the hope of warm sunny days ahead, this makes a light meal that is easy to prepare. Can be served as a main course with buttered new potatoes and green salad, or as a starter in individual soufflé dishes.

Serves 4 – 6

Ingredients

350g smoked haddock fillet

½ pint milk

65g butter

25g plain flour

Grated zest of ½ lemon

2 level tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Pinch Cayenne pepper

4 eggs

1 level tablespoon finely chopped parsley

Method

Butter a 1½ - 2 pint soufflé dish or 6 small soufflé dishes, sprinkle over the parsley so it sticks to the buttery sides and base. Wash the haddock fillet and pat dry. Put in a large shallow pan and pour over the milk and 1 tablespoon water. Bring slowly to the boil, then remove from the heat. Lift out the fish and allow to cool slightly. Set the cooking liquid aside. Remove the skin and bones from the fish and flake the flesh into a mixing bowl. Mash it finely with a fork. Melt 50g of the butter in a small pan and blend in the flour, remove from the heat and gradually add the fish cooking liquid, stirring continuously. Return to the heat and simmer until the sauce thickens to a creamy consistency. Flavour the sauce with the lemon zest, cheese and Cayenne, stir in the haddock.

Separate the eggs and beat the yolks into the sauce, one at a time. Whisk the egg whites until stiff, but not dry and fold carefully into the fish mixture. Spoon the fish mixture into the dish and bake in the oven at 200°C (Gas 6) for 30 minutes until well risen and golden. If using the smaller dishes reduce the cooking time to 15 - 20 mins.

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Grass Snake - Natrix helvetica

Recently, whilst walking along the canal towpath, a walker's dog stopped to stare intently at a stick. As the lady moved to investigate the 'stick,' it slithered into the water and swam away!

Of course, it was a grass snake, and probably a female as it was over a metre long. The males are generally shorter; around 90cm.

Until 2017, British snakes were thought to be Eastern Grass Snakes, Natrix natrix. However, genetic testing identified them as Barred Grass Snakes, Natrix helvetica.

Though a more appropriate name would be 'water snake' as they spend much of their time swimming and hunting in water.

They hibernate through the cold months and emerge in March or April. Mating takes place after they've eaten and recovered their strength. A month later, the females find somewhere warm to lay their eggs; heaps of compost, manure or rotting leaves being favoured sites. The young hatch in August-September and are about the length of a pencil.

Their diet is seasonal; starting with fish spawn in spring, then newts and tadpoles and finally frogs and toads in late summer and autumn.

Virtually every carnivore preys on grass snakes; including hedgehogs and herons. Against this, they've developed various defensive strategies; including hissing and striking out, playing dead and, when trapped, discharging an extremely noxious goo from their vent.

The World Health Organisation estimates that there are around 100,000 deaths from snakebites per annum, so ophidiophobia, a fear of snakes, is fully warranted in some countries... Here in the UK, evidence shows ladders (and people falling off them!) are over 700 times more lethal than adders!

Unsurprisingly, snakes feature prominently in ancient mythologies, frequently symbolising healing and transformation due to their habit of shedding their skins. The Ouroboros, a snake eating its own tail, is used to signify infinity and the cycle of birth and death.

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL Head Teacher Alan Eathorne

Soon our Year 6 children will be leaving us to go on to secondary school and we will welcome our new starters. We are pleased that we will once again have a full complement of children starting at our wonderful school in August.

Before half-term we held our annual Sports Day, which was enjoyed by the children and their families. We were blessed with a beautiful afternoon and a variety of individual and team races were completed, as well as races for our parents and toddlers.

I leave you with a piece of writing from one of our younger children - in year 1 - who has written a story about a farmer:

"Once upon a time there was a farmer who wanted to plant some windmill seeds and he dug some holes. Overnight they grew and grew and in the morning the windmills were colossal.... The farmer slumped out of his cottage and the farmer was really happy because there were tonnes of windmills and the weather was hot because it was summer. The End." Evie

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

We've noted in the past a number of 'ghost' signs on buildings around the village - vague remains of signs that betray previous 'lives' of their host buildings. The most prominent one is on the frontage of the old Grazier's Arms on High Street, which still boldly proclaims the establishment as an inn formerly owned by Phipps Brewery of Northampton.

It's also interesting to note a number of 'ghost' buildings such as this little building on Bell Lane. Once one of at least three slaughter houses in the village, it still retains the holding ring in the floor where the unfortunate animal was restrained whilst the slaughterman did his deed. In the brickwork fronting the road we can clearly see the 'ghosts' of windows and a door, with arched brick lintels, that have been bricked up to suit the building's changes of use over the years. These features in themselves tell a story and it is interesting to ponder on what upheavals this little gem of a building has endured. For many years the building was used as a store but thankfully it has been saved and is presently being restored as an extension to the living accommodation.

HISTORY ON OUR DOORSTEP...

Armoureddon tank and military vehicle driving centre on Leicester Road recently expanded their military museum, which now occupies four buildings on the site. The collection was started in 2003 by farmer, Stuart Garner who, whilst casting around for a farm diversification project, bought a redundant tank to see if he could convert it to fire paintballs. The rest, as they say, is history! The collection features many unique items, with over 50 military machines on display including dozens of tanks and a large collection of weaponry, including a Howitzer artillery gun, decommissioned ordnance and firearms, some of which can be handled. On loan is a Bell 47 helicopter, which first flew in 1957, making her one of the oldest flying helicopters in the world. Recent acquisitions include a Sexton self propelled artillery gun, which was the first one ever produced, a US M3 Lee medium tank, which is currently in the workshop undergoing restoration and a rare Sherman Jumbo is on its way from Canada!

A number of the vehicles on display are stars of the screen... TV appearances include The Gadget Show, Top Gear, 3D Motors TV, National Geographic and The Travel Channel. On the big screen, the Opel Olympia starred alongside Tom Hanks in the epic Saving Private Ryan, whilst the High Speed Tractor was featured in Band of Brothers and the Soviet T54 battle tank was in the 2015 Man from U.N.C.L.E remake. The White Half-Track and International Half-Tracks appeared with Madonna in Evita, and one of the Sherman tanks was recently used in the film Fury featuring Brad Pitt.

The museum is open April to October, Wednesday to Sunday. Admission is £6, under 5s free. On many days you may be able to watch, from a spectator's viewing area, some of the vehicles on manoeuvres on the ranges - at a safe distance - no chance of being splatted by a stray paintball! Call 880239 or go to: www.armoureddon.co.uk for more information.

WASTE LINE

Harborough District Council recently brought a successful case against a resident who asked a friend to remove rubbish, which was subsequently dumped in a country lane. The council's Environmental Crime Team investigating a report of fly-tipping in Welham Lane, Great Bowden, found evidence amongst the rubbish that traced it back to the resident. The resident had failed to check whether the person was registered to carry and dispose of the rubbish and was issued with a Fixed Penalty Notice for £300.

Householders are reminded that they are legally responsible for any waste produced on their property and have a duty of care to check that anyone disposing of their waste is legally allowed to do so.

There are a number of ways to legally dispose of the waste that cannot go into wheeled bins:

- Large waste items can be taken, free of charge, to the local recycling and waste site (tip)
- Waste carriers licenced by the Environment Agency can remove your waste (You can check if they have a licence on the Environment Agency website)
- The Council also runs a large waste items collection service, which will collect up to three large household items or 12 sacks of waste for a flat-rate charge of £34.17.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church, Methodist Chapel & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

FROM THE RECTORY

While it was a sad time, there was a real sense of celebration at the final service at the Methodist Church in May. The celebration was about the fact that the church had survived, sometimes against all the odds, for so long. That place had been the spiritual home for many people over the years and there were many people to thank for keeping the church going over that time.

The preacher, Canon Helen Cameron, took her text from the story about the two disciples after the death and resurrection of Jesus who were walking back to Emmaus from Jerusalem, and Jesus came up alongside them and explained the scriptures to them, but they didn't realise it was him. She reminded us that even though the closure of the chapel was something of a death, Jesus is not gone from those who follow him, but comes alongside us in our difficult times to help us make sense of them. What he did in Bible times he still does today and we can take courage and comfort from that.

Change is never easy, especially when something important to us comes to an end. Yet change is built in to the very fabric of life itself - with the changing seasons and the cycle of death and rebirth which is repeated year on year. Unless a seed that is planted dies, it will not germinate to produce new growth. Our children must leave our village primary school in order to progress to secondary school.

The process of becoming a Christian also involves the process of dying to the old way of life and being reborn spiritually into the family of God. Wherever there is life and growth there is change.

At All Saints we are experiencing something of a death with the end to our 9.30am service on the first Sunday of the month. But the opportunity of new life in sharing worship with either Shearsby at 9.30am or Theddingworth at 11.00am - an ending and a new beginning. We are also welcoming the change which is the arrival of our curate, Revd. Angela Tarry, who has joined us for a few months as she completes her curacy. May we all know God's blessing through these changing times.

Liz

HARMONICS COMMUNITY CHOIR

All Saints Church will be welcoming back the popular Harmonics Community Choir on Saturday, October 5th at 7.30pm. You may remember that they came last November for Remembrance weekend. The concert was excellent, with music to suit all tastes and it even ended with a bugler playing a very stirring Last Post! I am sure that their next concert will be just as good. Put the date in your diaries.
