

HOUSE RULES

It looks as if Harborough District Council planners have been peering over our hedges and into our gardens again... The authority has recently published its latest Strategic Housing and Economic Land Availability Assessment (SHELAA), which provides evidence on the potential supply of development land across the District.

The National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF) requires local planning authorities to carry out regular reviews of land availability within their administrative area. The assessment started with a 'Call for Sites' during the spring of 2021, which provided an opportunity for landowners, developers, agents and site promoters to submit sites that they considered to have potential for development within the next ten years.

In the assessment Husbands Bosworth is identified as a Key Centre, having a number of key community assets, including a shop, Post Office, doctors' surgery, pharmacy, places of worship and pub, and looked at four sites with a potential 'yield' of over 200 homes.

Since the assessment commenced, one site off Honeypot Lane has been approved for the erection of 10 homes and is awaiting development. The other developments are:

- Land to the east of Welford Road, behind Townend Close, which was projected to accommodate 137 new homes

- Land to the west of Welford Road, beyond Trolley Close and extending southwards behind the allotments, 57 homes

- Husbands Bosworth School Playing Field, 11 homes, but which, happily, was assessed as only being potentially viable if other developments provided a new school!

It is important to note that SHELAA is not a decision-making document and does not in itself determine whether sites could, or should, be brought forward for development. Indeed, identified sites may fail other planning or strategic criteria.

Additionally, the village's Neighbourhood Plan laid out the community's vision for development up to 2031, more than satisfying the village's allocation at that time by identifying the extension to Kemp Drive as our preferred expansion option.

New development on the school field

WISE COUNCIL

Husbands Bosworth Parish Council is currently seeking prospective candidates for the post of parish councillor in the parish council elections, which will be taking place next May. The village can elect up to seven councillors in 2023.

Would you like to have a direct say in how our local area develops? Would you like to help to shape the future of our community? Have you got a skill or particular enthusiasm for any aspect of the most local part of government? Importantly, would you like to have a say in how the parish portion of your Council Tax is spent?

Then read on...

What does the parish council do?

The parish council manages the village Playing Field, Recreation Area, Dog Walk, Sports Pavilion and the village Allotments. It acts as the Burial Board for the Welford Road cemetery, advises Harborough planners on local planning matters and administers local grant opportunities.

It also provides and maintains parts of the local infrastructure, including bus shelters, waste bins, grit bins, benches and the village's greens and open spaces.

Interested?

Please call the Parish Clerk on 881109, email: clerk@husbandsbosworthpc.org.uk or call at the Parish Office, 2a Mowsley Road.

Note: To be eligible you must be a British citizen, over 18 years of age and be a registered elector in the parish. You must also live or work in or near the parish.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From Di Jones, Highcroft

Dear Village, I would like to pass on a thank you from Lutterworth Foodbank for the collection made at the joint Church and School Harvest Festival and the following Friday. A big thank you must go to all the school families who made a tremendous collection of food but also to the church congregation and villagers who added many, many, many more bags. A grand total of 177.8kg of goods were collected.

Special thanks to Sam Bell and Penny Arcsott, who helped to organise the event.

From Sylvia Price, Highcroft

I just wanted to thank everyone who supported me with my Great North Run and London Marathon efforts on behalf of Guidedogs UK. My run-up to the races was a mixed bag of emotions - I was due to run the GNR in a dog costume and training was going well. However I was unable to even start the race as unfortunately I collapsed on the metro in Newcastle on my way to the start and ended up going back to my hotel and watched the race on the TV - not my intention and bitterly disappointed!

I was determined nothing was going to stop me from getting to London just three weeks later, but my training suffered. However, I'm pleased to say that not only did I start the race, but got over the finish line - not in a time I would have liked, (5:17) but just so glad to have finished. It was an experience I will never forget, the atmosphere, crowd support and the general buzz of the day was amazing.

A big shout out to hubby, Mick, for his continued support and patience throughout the whole process - due to Covid it was a little under 4 years since my place was secured - a long time to keep motivated!!

Was it hard? Oh yes... Was it worth the pain? Definitely. Would I do it again? Quite possibly...

From Jennifer Rogers, Highcroft

Ken Rogers passed away suddenly at Kettering General Hospital on Monday October 17th after a very short illness, aged 83 years. He was a very special husband for 56 years and a loving father to Christopher and the late Susan. Ken lived in the village for 46 years and was involved in many projects, including the Village Hall, Tennis Club, Badminton Club, Scouts and the Millennium Woodland and will be greatly missed.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Elder - Sambucus Nigra

Elder, also known as Elderberry or Black Elderberry, favours sunny locations and is an arboreal gem of our countryside. From March until August, they decorate the hedgerows with their floral displays. The snow-white corymbs (plates of flowers) are hermaphroditic and are pollinated by flies.

It may come as a surprise, but elder leaves, wood, roots and even the seeds are poisonous. Symptoms of elder poisoning include nausea, vomiting, and in extreme cases coma. Despite its toxicity, herbalists, including Nicholas Culpeper, attributed medicinal qualities to elder trees. It was touted as a cure for afflictions such as freckles, sores, bloodshot eyes and piles. It was also used as a hair dye and fly repellent, though not at the same time! It's suggested the name 'Elder' derives from the Anglo Saxon 'æld', meaning fire; the connection being that hollow elder stems were used to blow air into recalcitrant fires.

Elder uses endozoochory (dispersal via the digestive tracts of animals) as a strategy to distribute its seeds. To encourage this behaviour, it encapsulates the seeds in a nutritious, non-toxic layer, and it's the pulp of these fruits that foragers use to make elder cordial and wine. Cooking up cordial isn't difficult and simply involves extracting the juice, sieving out solid material, adding sugar and secondary flavours, such as lemon and ginger.

The Celtic calendar consisted of thirteen lunar months, each of which was assigned a name and the characteristics of a tree. The thirteenth and final month of the year, which begins in November, was designated as the Elder Moon. It signified both endings and beginnings, as it was both the end and start of a year.

Lastly, an elder planted close to a doorway allegedly deters the devil and witches from entering a house...

CHRISTMAS TRAIL

All Saints Church will be hosting their popular Christmas Trail over the weekend of Saturday, December 10th and Sunday 11th. The church's Festive Market will be open both days from 2.00pm to 5.00pm, with raffles, craft and festive gift stalls, bric a brac, etc.

There will also be a tombola and more... a FREE quiz and FREE activities for children. Come along, support your Parish Church and start feeling Christmassy with a mug of coffee and a mince pie before tracing the Christmas Trail around the village.

Christmas Foodbank

During the Christmas Trail weekend, there will be boxes in Church for donations to Lutterworth Foodbank.

As well as basic foods, toiletries, cleaning materials, it would be nice to add sweets and selection boxes, festive biscuits, Christmas crackers, serviettes, Christmas puddings or cake or any Christmas treat you may think of...

BOSWORTH SKY AT NIGHT

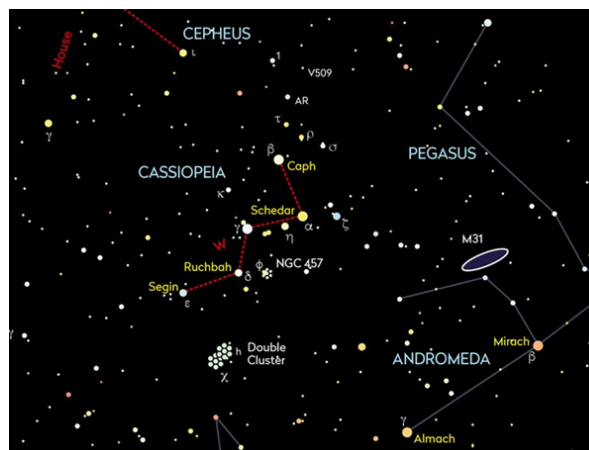

Astronomy from your Backyard Cassiopeia and the Andromeda Galaxy

Cassiopeia, a Queen in ancient Greek mythology, is a small but distinctive constellation located directly overhead in the late autumn sky, in the middle of the northern Milky Way. Five bright stars mark out the characteristic, slightly irregular, W of this constellation making it easy to find in the night sky [see the diagram, right].

With good eyesight it is just possible to spot the nearby M31 Andromeda galaxy as a faint fuzzy patch with the naked eye, shown as an oval ring in the diagram. With binoculars you will see it as a definite nebulous oval shape. M31 is the designation French astronomer, Charles Messier, gave to Andromeda in his 1774 listing. This galaxy is the farthest object that the unaided eye can see - in fact it is so far away that the light takes 2½ million years to reach us, so we are seeing the galaxy as it was 2½ million years ago! It is a sister galaxy to our own Milky Way and both are expected to collide in around 4 to 5 billion years, merging to form a giant galaxy. What a sight that would be, if we were around to see it!

Next month: The constellation Perseus

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL Head Teacher Alan Eathorne

Husbands Bosworth CE Primary School has recently launched our new initiative, 'Farm School', thanks to the help of the Leicestershire Young Farmers.

The school, which is part of the Learn Academies Trust, welcomed the Chair of Leicestershire Young Farmers, Greg Parkes, along with two of his colleagues, farmers Matt Kirk and Jess Armitage, to talk to the children and help explain the role farming plays in today's society and how important it is.

The trio showed the children their mobile milk van, which serves fresh, pasteurised milk direct from the farm. They were then invited to see a tractor and sit in the driving seat while Matt explained how farms use different machinery and why. The children also learnt about a 'day in the life' of a dairy farmer, as well as the different jobs associated with harvest time. Head teacher, Alan Eathorne said, "Our village is named after, and exists, because of farming and we want to celebrate our history by bringing farming back into our curriculum, but we also want our children to know how farming is shaping our future, is at the cutting edge of technology and is vitally important to our health and economic stability. When we asked our parents if they wanted the school to be known as one that 'supports nature, the countryside and farming' they all said yes - so making the decision to weave farming into our school was easy."

One of our overriding ambitions is to break down the stereotypes that exist and to allow children to see careers like farming as relevant to them, just as working in IT or being a teacher is. While many of our neighbouring schools have developed forest school as a thread in their teaching, we wanted to reflect our roots by bringing in agriculture where we could. We have many school families who are farmers and we're really looking forward to working with them, alongside our own School Council members from Years 5 and 6, as we develop our Farm School over the months and years."

Husbands Bosworth CE Primary School is currently offering tours to parents who are looking for a school place from September 2023. To find out more please contact the School Office on 880212 or email office@hbs.learnat.uk

Lutterworth's new museum has officially opened its doors to the public with the aim of bringing to life the last 2,000 years, Roman times to the present day...

Lutterworth and District Museum now has a new base at Lutterworth Town Estates' High Point building, next to The Shambles pub, Market Street, Lutterworth.

The museum holds fascinating artefacts, documentation, photographs and memorabilia that chart the history of Lutterworth and its surrounding network of villages. There are displays about John Wycliffe who completed the first translation of the Bible from Latin into English in 1383, the world's leading collection relating to aviation pioneer Sir Frank Whittle who developed the jet engine in Lutterworth and a Rolls Royce Merlin engine recovered from a Hawker Hurricane fighter that was shot down during the Battle of Britain in 1940.

The museum is managed by Trustees, and staffed and run entirely by volunteers. If you would like to become involved with the project either 'front of house' or behind the scenes, please let us know!

SCOUTING FOR BOSWORTH

Our young people in Scouting have been having great adventures this autumn... Beavers camped out at South Leicestershire District's annual Beaveree sleep over. This year's theme was 'Around the World'. There was fantastic teamwork from the Beavers, as they really looked after one another. They drummed in South Africa, cooked on open fires in the Australian Outback, hunted for haggis in Scotland and decorated wooden eggs and played traditional children's games in Ukraine.

Meanwhile some of our Scouts took to the river Orwell, sailing from Ipswich to Harwich in powered sailboats, learning how to handle the boat and the sails. And, as part of learning about different faiths, our Cubs will be visiting a Hindu temple, the BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir, in Leicester in November.

As mentioned previously, I am stepping down from the position at the end of 2022. So, 1st Kilworth Scout Group is looking for adult volunteers, especially a new Group Scout Leader. While experience of working with young people, or in the volunteer sector or even in Scouting itself is desirable, what is most essential is the ability to manage adults effectively. Foremost, we're looking for an enthusiastic member of the community who gets on well with others and is willing to learn. If this sounds like a role you would excel in and you want to get involved with Scouting, then please get in contact: kilworth@southleics-scouts.org.uk or 07800 713090.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

ALL SAINTS CHURCH NEWS

I've been thinking about the experience of attending church and it struck me that we often fail to understand what we come to church for.

We don't come to church to pray - although we do always pray. We don't come to sing hymns - although we often do sing. We don't come to listen to scripture - although again, that is always a feature of our gathering. We don't come to hear a finely crafted, interesting and erudite sermon - which is just as well, as it rarely happens!

No, having scripture explained and applied is very often a key part of our gathered activity, but it is not the goal. We don't even come to church to receive holy communion - although that certainly takes a central place.

The real goal, the ultimate goal of coming to church is that we might meet with the risen Jesus. That is the core business of the church - to create spaces where people can meet with the risen Jesus and be transformed by that encounter.

That encounter happens in prayer, in worship, in hearing scripture and having it explained and applied, in receiving the sacrament of Holy Communion - and it is that encounter that is the goal, not the activity in and of itself.

The church's core business is not even the maintenance of our religious buildings - as wonderful and inspiring as they are, with their 1,000-year history. For the first three centuries there were no church buildings, so buildings cannot be our core business. In the future, we are going to have a lot fewer buildings, as we cannot find people willing to pay for their upkeep, or willing to work to keep them open.

Neither is the church's core business bound up with paid clergy. In the early church few church leaders were paid, yet the church grew faster at that time. So, paid clergy aren't essential to the core business of the church. Again, in the future we will certainly have fewer people like me because we simply can't afford them.

But the core business of the church will go on, as small communities of Christians find ways of helping their friends and neighbours to meet with the risen Jesus and to be transformed by that encounter.

So, I'm not frightened by the graphs that show the Church of England becoming extinct by 2060. The core business of the church is not structures, staff, buildings, or religious services - as good and as wonderful as all of those have sometimes been. The core business of the church is small communities that help others to meet with the risen Jesus and that transformation. That is the business that I want to be involved in...

ST. MARY'S NEWS

All Saints Day, a Holy Day in the Catholic Church, is on Sunday, November 1st. At St. Mary's we will be celebrating with special Vigil Mass services on Monday, October 31st at 7.00pm and on Tuesday, November 1st at 11.00am.

At our regular Sunday Masses during November we will pray for those who have died, and there is an opportunity to place names on the altar.

On Thursday, November 17th we have a special Mass at 10.30am to pray for and remember those who are no longer with us. All are welcome and names of loved ones who have died can be submitted in the day to be read out

In August 2023 St Mary's will be celebrating 150 years of the Church being open. We are planning a series of events during the year to commemorate the event and are inviting local groups to participate. We are very much at the planning stage at the moment and so we are open to any ideas to mark the anniversary.
