

REMEMBERING...

June 6th 2024 marks the 80th anniversary of D-Day, when Allied forces mounted the largest amphibious invasion the world has ever witnessed.

Operation Overlord saw around 4,000 boats and ships set down about 132,500 troops onto five Normandy beaches in an action that would bring about the liberation of north-west Europe from Nazi occupation.

Husbands Bosworth will be remembering... Alongside beacons the length and breadth of the country and the UK Overseas Territories, we will be lighting our beacon, representing the 'light of peace' that emerged out of the darkness of war, on the Playing Field at 9.15pm on Thursday, 6th June 2024.

EVERYONE PLAYED THEIR PART - THIS IS FOR EVERYONE...

SHOW STARTER

Although it has to be said that we haven't had a very favourable start to the gardening year so far, it is time to start planning for the Husbands Bosworth Horticultural and Craft Show 2024, which will be on Sunday, August 4th.

So, now is the time to start planning, preparing, practising and maybe (fingers crossed) start planting for a new year and a fresh opportunity to continue to celebrate a village tradition that has been running for over 140 years. The shows are always well supported by villagers, sponsors and volunteers making this a great local custom and a well established part of the community calendar.

For those new to the village here is a 'flavour' of what the show is about...

The heart of the show is not about how much money we make, (although any profits we make go back to local good causes) but about the community entering into the spirit of light hearted competition, admiring the different exhibits, winning on the tombola or simply enjoying a cup of tea and a homemade cake and catching up on village gossip! We will have our usual classes for all types of garden produce: vegetables, fruit, floral and baking, art and crafts classes - competitive classes for all ages. As a bonus, there are also opportunities to taste some of the brews and bakes! Look out for regular updates and reminders in the Bugle and on Facebook.

Any suggestions, questions or offers of help in any way, please contact Karen: kide.1962@gmail.com

STAYING ALIVE...

At the Annual Parish Meeting in April, John Skelton from East Midlands Ambulance Service gave an excellent presentation on the significant benefits of administering CPR and the straightforward process for using a defibrillator. We are very lucky to have three of these potentially life saving pieces of equipment in the village and John has very kindly agreed to run a workshop in the village if there is enough interest, to give parishioners the opportunity to learn more about giving CPR and using defibrillators.

This is not a formal or certified training course; it is the opportunity to gain some insight from an expert and gain some practical experience around giving CPR and using a defibrillator. If you wish to attend this event, please email the Clerk: clerk@husbandsbosworthpc.org. uk or call 881109 to register interest.

Once numbers are known, and assuming we have enough people interested, we will liaise with John and agree a date or dates.

If you go down in the wood today...

No Teddybears at the Millennium Wood I'm afraid [not that we know of...].

However, you will no doubt notice that the steps and some of the pathways have recently been wood-chipped.

There is always work to be done around the site to maintain this community facility so, if you fancy a little light work-out we are having a work party morning at the Woodland on Saturday, May 4th from 10.00am to finish off the wood-chip.

We do have some equipment, but if you have a wheel barrow and shovel that would be great!

The Office, which has been created with support of the Lutterworth Town Council, will allow officers of both the Beat and Response Teams a place where they can go and have a break or do some paperwork, whilst being in the local area and able to respond rapidly to any local incidents.

This new Beat Office also has an interview room and a traditional blue lamp! The local Beat Team will also use the facility as a start and finish base, which will allow more time for a visible police presence around the town and community.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Grey Heron - Ardea cinerea

On rare occasions, you might be lucky enough to spot a heron in a statuesque pose on the canal bank; watching for signs of a passing lunch, though it is surprising they can see anything in today's turbid canal water. I recall as a youngster watching pike lurking amongst the reeds beside the towpath. Nowadays, however, the combination of boat traffic churning up the mud and fertiliser leaching in from neighbouring farms creates canal water with the opacity of builders' tea.

Evidently, herons have overcome this difficulty as there are approximately 13,000 breeding pairs in the UK and 63,000 overwintering birds. Nesting takes place in historical sites, called heronries. The largest such in Britain is currently at Northward Hill in Kent, where there are between 150 and 200 nests! Away from the heronry, they adopt a solitary lifestyle. Besides fish, (including those treasured individuals in garden ponds), they readily feed on a variety of creatures: small birds (ducklings), small mammals, newts, frogs, and worms. As photographers will know, getting close up photographs of these birds is difficult due to their extreme timidity - they take flight at the first sign of a human. Doubtless, this behaviour was genetically favoured in the past as fearless birds tended to end up on the banquet table! In 1513 Mr. Wynkyn de Worde wrote that this lean and stringy bird could be improved by "...sauce hym with vynegre, mustarde, poudre of ginger, and salte"! Currently, herons are a protected species...

The symbolism of the heron differs by culture. In China, it represents strength, purity, and long life. In Native American tradition the heron symbolizes wisdom and good judgment. In ancient Egypt, the heron was an icon of creation, while in Africa and Greece it was a messenger of the gods.

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

There are many reports and much local newspaper coverage of the May Day festivities in Bosworth in the early 1900s. Clearly the event was an important fixture in the village

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH.

The annual children's May festival took place on Tuesday last, but owing to the adverse condition of the elements many of the Maypole dances, etc., had to be curtailed. Miss Nellie Wallace looked charming as the Queen of May. She was dressed in a frock of cream silk, and wore a crown of white flowers. The children were under the charge of the schoolmaster (Mr. Wilson) Mrs. Wilson, and Miss Clark. After parading the village, tea was provided in the school-room, presided over by the Rector (the Rev. A. Lamb), Mrs. Chamberlain, and the Misses Whiteman, Marsh, and Wells.

calendar at that time, and being crowned May Queen was obviously a great honour. Here, in 1910 we see 10 year old Nellie Wallis, daughter of George Wallis, the licensee of the Red Lion Inn, in all her regalia. (Note the Leicester Mail misspelling of Nellie's surname!)

In the case of the photograph from the following year, when the weather appears to have been more clement, the whole pageant and the May Queen's entourage, including a vast retinue of twenty-two Maids of Honour dressed in their finest, processed in a stately fashion around the village, the May Queen being transported in a gaily decorated bath chair. The procession on that occasion also included setting up the May Pole as a traffic-calming measure in the middle of High Street...

In 1917 the Midland Mail reported that '...the crowning of the May Queen is a time-honoured event and there is no falling off of interest'. May Day celebrations carried on throughout WWII when the evacuees from Kensal House School, London joined the village children, but the custom seems to have lapsed soon after.

In 1971, however, the Harborough Mail reported that it was revived and 5 year old, Sharon Perkins was crowned May Queen in an event organised by the PTA and the school, which included the May Pole Dance, handbell ringing and Lutterworth Morris Dancers.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

ALL SAINTS CHURCH NEWS

When is a Church Poor?

In Acts 3 we read of an incident when Peter met a lame man begging at the gate of the Temple in Jerusalem.

Peter said, 'I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk.' And he took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. Jumping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. For some people, for the church to have to say "I have no silver and gold" is about the worst thing that can be said. They feel it is embarrassing for the church to be poor. As we look around the Hexagon Benefice, most of our churches are struggling to sustain themselves financially. Even all six of us together can't afford to pay a priest. We don't have much in the way of silver or gold.

But there is an interesting story of a humble monk who was being shown around a magnificent cathedral by a cardinal. This happened in the Middle Ages when the Roman Catholic church was at its zenith of power, prestige, and wealth. The cardinal pointed out the opulent building with all of its magnificent gilding and furnishings and he said to the monk with a wink, "We no longer have to say, I have no silver or gold."

The monk paused and then looked the proud cardinal in the eye and said, "But neither can you say, 'In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.'"

When is the church really poor? The monk knew a truth that the cardinal didn't. The Church is only really poor when she is no longer a place where God moves in salvation and healing. That is when the church is really poor.

I don't care how much money we have in the Hexagon, but I do care passionately that we should be a place where God's power in salvation and healing is seen to be at work. More than anything else, this is my prayer. Please join me in praying it.
